Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. It is house-intellect's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information our application "Cloud Keyring" requires to provide the desired service. We only ask for personal information when we truly need it to provide a service to you. We do not collect neither store any of your data. We don't share any personally identifying information publicly or with third-parties. Our app may link to external sites that are not operated by us. Please be aware that we have no control over the content and practices of these sites, and cannot accept responsibility or liability for their respective privacy policies. You are free to refuse the application request for your personal information, with the understanding that we may be unable to provide you with some of your desired services. Your continued use of our application will be regarded as acceptance of our practices around privacy and personal information. This policy is effective as of 13 February 2020.
